

www.nmschoolhealthmanul.org

<http://ped.state.nm.us/sfsb/index.html>

<https://nmsna.nursingnetwork.com/>

New School Nurse Orientation Agenda
 Head-to-Toe Pre-Conference
 Albuquerque Convention Center
 April 17, 2018

7:30 AM to 8:00 AM<	Registration and Breakfast The Eastern New Mexico University College of Nursing is a New Mexico Board of Nursing approved provider. 7.2 CEUs will be awarded after completion of this course. Partial credit will not be given for this offering.
8:00 AM to 8:30 AM	Welcome to School Nursing -Introductions -Susan Acosta B.S., RN School Health Advocate, NM DOH Northwest Region Pre-test (Note: All planning committee members and presenter(s)/author(s)/content reviewer(s) participating in this educational activity do not have any financial relationships that they or an immediate family member may have with any commercial interest in any amount occurring within the past 12 months that create a conflict of interest.)
8:30 AM to 9:30 AM	The School Nurse’s Role in Coordinated School Health: Making the connection between health and education This presentation includes an overview of the New Mexico’s Coordinated School Health Approach which provides a programmatic framework for student learning. This presentation also provides information about the regulations governing school health in New Mexico, resources available for school nurses, and the national standards for school nursing. Objective: 1. Provided with information about the New Mexico School Health Coordinated Model, participants will be able to explain components of the school health model with 80% accuracy. Pre/Posttest question: (True or False) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> In New Mexico, the Regional Health Officers (RHOs) are charged by state statute with oversight responsibilities of all school health personnel, except physical education staff. Standing orders for New Mexico school nurses can be found in the New Mexico School Health Manual. Presenter: Susan Acosta, B.S., RN – School Health Advocate, NM DOH Northwest Region

New School Nurse Orientation Agenda
Head-to-Toe Pre-Conference
Albuquerque Convention Center
April 17, 2018

9:30 AM to 10:45 AM	Medications and Delegation in the School Setting This presentation provides information on the regulations and best practice recommendations for delegation and administration of medications in the school setting. Objective: Upon completion of the course presentation, participants will be able to explain, with 100% accuracy, New Mexico school health policies and procedures related to medication administration and delegation in the school setting. Pre/Post test questions: (True or False) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. New Mexico Board of Nursing Rules prohibit nurses from delegating the nursing functions of assessment, evaluation, and nursing judgment to non-licensed persons. 2. Integrative therapies follow the prescription rules when given in schools. Presenter: Sharon Guerra BS, RN – Director of Nursing, Albuquerque Public Schools
10:45 AM to 11:00 AM	Stretch Break
11:00 AM to 12:00 PM	School Immunization Requirements and Resources for the School Nurse This presentation provides information on the vaccine requirement regulations for New Mexico school students. Objective: Using the 2017-2018 New Mexico School Immunization Requirements for School Entry Form and comparing it to the student's shot records, participants will analyze and determine, with 100% accuracy, the immunization status of students for school entry. Pre/Posttest question: (True or False) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. New Mexico requires vaccinations against certain vaccine preventable diseases to attend a Public, Private or Home School. Presenter: Rebecca Trujillo, MSN, BSN, RN - School Health Advocate Nurse, NM DOH Southeast Region
12:00 PM to 1:00 PM	Networking Lunch Exhibitors will be on hand to share resources and information. School Nurses will have an opportunity to meet and network with other school nurses, agencies, and organizations interested in school health.

New School Nurse Orientation Agenda
Head-to-Toe Pre-Conference
Albuquerque Convention Center
April 17, 2018

1:00 PM to 1:30 PM	School Wellness Policies This presentation provides information about the school nurses role in the implementation of the NM Public Education Department Wellness Policy and school health programs using a coordinated school health approach. Objective: Upon completion of the course presentation, participants will be able list 80% of the essential components of the Wellness Policy for New Mexico School Districts. Pre/Post test questions: (True or False) 1. According to the New Mexico Public Education Department, all school districts must submit a Wellness Policy that addresses nutrition and physical activity for students and staff. Presenter: Anita Hett, BSN, RN - Santa Fe Public Schools, Lead Nurse
1:30 PM to 2:30 PM	School Nurses Role in IHPs, IEPs, SATs, 504s, and Medicaid Reimbursement This presentation provides information about the regulations, processes, and documentation related to Special Education Student Assistance Teams (SAT), Individualized Healthcare Plans (IHPs), 504 forms. Also, a brief overview of Medicaid reimbursement, Administrative claiming and direct service will be presented. Objective: Following completion of the course presentation, participants will be able to describe, with 100% accuracy, the role of the school nurse in the development of an Individualized Healthcare Plan (IHP), 504 Plan, and Individualized Education Plan (IEP) and requirements of Medicaid reimbursement. Pre/Post test questions: (True or False) 1. The PED licensed school nurse must provide the nursing service of medication administration to be claimable under the MSBS program. 2. Nursing Service must be listed on the written IEP for nursing services to be reimbursed under the MSBS program. Presenter: Ashley Garcia, BSN, RN Medicaid/Health Services Coordinator, PED Coordinated School Health and Wellness Bureau

New School Nurse Orientation Agenda
Head-to-Toe Pre-Conference
Albuquerque Convention Center
April 17, 2018

2:30 PM to 3:00 PM	Conducting School Health Vision and Hearing Screenings This presentation provides information on the regulations and best practice procedures for conducting student vision and hearing screenings in the school setting. Objective: Provided with information about the use of tools and equipment for school health screenings, participants will be able to demonstrate how to utilize the screening equipment with 100% accuracy. Pre/Post test questions: (True or False) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Amblyopia (lazy eye) is the leading cause of decreased vision among children. 2. The recommended grade levels for hearing screening are K, 5th, 8th, and 10th. 3. All NM students in grades PK, K, 1, & 3, and all children new to the state (regardless of grade) must have their vision screened yearly, within 120 days of enrollment. Presenter: Cathy McDonald, MSN, RN - Director of Nursing, Farmington Municipal Schools
3:00 PM to 3:15 PM	Break
3:15 PM to 4:15 PM	School Nursing Pediatric Assessment and Care This presentation provides information on best practices for physical and behavioral health assessments in the school setting. Participants will be provided with information on protocols for recognizing, reporting and monitoring communicable/reportable diseases in the school setting. Also, information on confidentiality in schools and reporting to CYFD will be presented. Objectives: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Following completion of the course presentation, participants will be able to correctly list and explain each step of primary assessment, with 100% accuracy. 2. Following completion of the course presentation, participants will be able to explain, with 100% accuracy, the role of the school nurse in identifying, reporting, and monitoring communicable / reportable diseases in the school setting. Pre/Post test questions: (True or False) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The ABCDE's of Primary Assessment are: Airway, Breathing, Chief Complaint, Diet, and Exposure. 2. HIPAA is the federal law that protects the privacy of students' educational records. 3. The three exceptions that allow school nurses to share a student's confidential information are: harm to self, harm to others, and/or is being harmed or abused. 4. You can report child abuse to the following agencies: local law enforcement, child protective services (CYFD) and office of school & adolescent health. Presenter: Judy Creegan, President New Mexico School Nurses Association, Director of Nursing, Gadsden Independent School District,
4:45 PM to 5:00 PM	Post – test, Evaluation and CEU Certificates